From Previous Minutes 11908 New Churchyard

- a) Cllr Davey invites comments on the proposal of the need of a New Churchyard for Dersingham.

Cllr Hathaway reported that she had been advised there could be as little as two years left in the current Churchyard. Cllr Payne stated that there were still existing plots and discussions should wait until the Church PCC approached the Parish Council for support. Cllr Payne suggested that this was an issue which needed considerable thought as there was a lot of responsibility in undertaking this task. From her previous experience of looking into this matter, she knew that there was no available land within the village. Cllr Edwards responded that this was an issue that should be looked into now, as it was going to be a long process to find suitable land and should not be left until it posed a serious problem.
