12263 Councillors to Vote on the new plans for Dersingham Centre.
A new plan for the Dersingham centre had been drawn up and was circulated which encompassed the front elevation and roof as a request by Historic England this will incur a further £75,000 charge which may make the project uneconomic. Even though request from Historic England they appreciate with the extra cost involved it may not be practical. It was resolved for this plan to be adopted as an additional plan but a total rebuild a preferred option

12264 War Memorial – Union Flag.
Complaints had been received within the Parish Council office with regards to the Union Flag flying upside down. It was seen to be disrespectful and symbolised a state of distress. Requests had been made of Cllr Houston, Cllr Brundle and Cllr Green to adjust the flag however Cllr Houston had stated previously he would change the flag once he had voiced his reasons for flying the flag upside down. It was proposed that the British Legion be approached and asked if they wish to donate the pole to the Parish Council who would maintain the pole, flag etc. It was resolved for Cllr Payne to write to The Royal British Legion.

12265 Recreation Ground/War Memorial Garden – Third Party Hire Policy. Councillors to vote and Discuss Policy.
Cllr Hathaway has produced a draft hire policy for events to be held on the Recreation Ground and War Memorial. It was felt that a formal process needed to be in place, this was to include a cancellation policy. It was resolved Cllr Hathaway would forward the draft document to The Clerk for circulation.
